Civil Disputes

We have a team of solicitors who specialise in civil disputes such as:-

- Claims for breach of contract
- Unpaid debts
- Professional negligence
- Building disputes
- Injunctions
- Wills/Trust disputes
- Property/boundary disputes
- Consumer disputes including HP/ Consumer Credit Agreements
- Housing matters

We fully understand the client's need to settle any such disputes as quickly as possible, minimising costs and preferably without the need to go to litigation in the Courts. We will always therefore attempt to solve such disputes by negotiation and will consider mediation as an informal way of attempting to settle such disputes without litigation by using the services of an impartial mediator if appropriate.

We will always seek to agree with the client the most cost effective way of solving the dispute and methods of funding including:-

- Pre existing legal expenses insurance if it is available
- No Win No Fee (Conditional Fee Agreements) together with insurance policy if appropriate
- If the client is an individual we will advise about legal aid/public funding although that is not available if it is a business matter

- Clients paying our fees

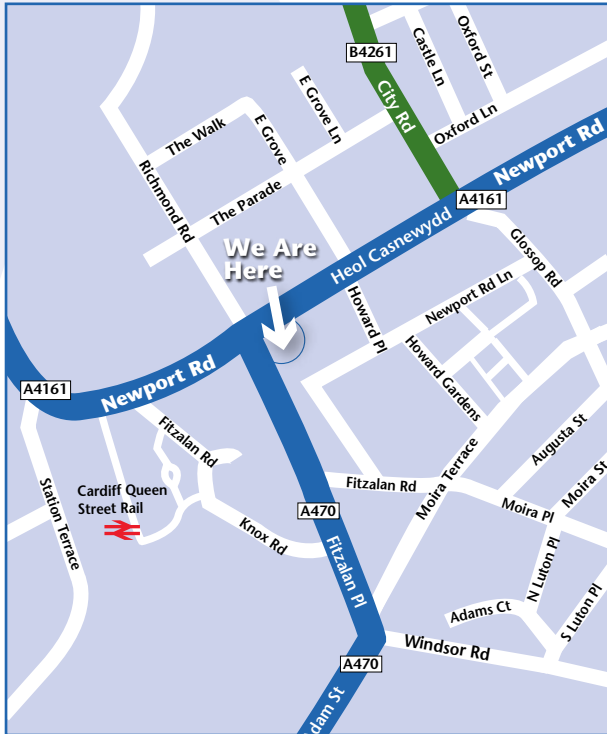

It is important that we are instructed as soon as a dispute arises because without legal advice people often do or say things which may prejudice their position later on. We are happy to provide initial advice on a fixed fee basis.
